Small in size, big on charm - tucked away on Slovenia's Adriatic coast, exploring Piran feels like stepping into a postcard. With its charming Venetian architecture, narrow cobbled streets, and breathtaking sea views, this seaside town is pure hidden gem.

The most beautiful town on the Slovenian coast grew with the help of salt. The Piran salt pans, where the world-class fleur de sel (flower of salt) is still produced today using age-old methods, were the reason why the picturesque Mediterranean walled town, with its church with a view and cultural attractions, flourished.

Wander through Tartini Square and the promenade, taste fresh seafood, try local wines, and experience sunsets that make Piran the perfect escape.
